MRS. WICKERSHAM JOINS COMMITTEE

Wife of Attorney General Makes Contribution to Woman's Titanic Memorial.

Three additional women were made yesterday to the Committee of One Hundred of the Woman's "Titanic" Memorial through the acceptance of Mrs. George W. Wickersham, wife of the United States Attorney General; Mrs. William H. Baldwin, Jr., of New York, widow of the former President of the Long Island Railroad; and Miss Annie American, of New York, secretary of the Council of Jewish Women.

Mrs. Wickersham, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Nagel, wife of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, called at the Memorial Headquarters in the Union Trust Building. Both handed in their donations to the memorial fund. Another prominent visitor to the headquarters was Miss Henrietta B. Ely, of Philadelphia, who has actively taken up her city's work for the "Woman's Tribute to Heroic Mariner."

An interesting report of the progress being made by the newly formed Maryland organization of the Woman's "Titanic" Memorial, of which Mrs. T. Harrison Garrett is the chairman, was received yesterday from Mrs. G. Huntington Williams, secretary. The appeal which has been issued for funds for the memorial by Mrs. Anne Leask Stouffer, honorary president of the Maryland State Federation of Women's Clubs, was included.

It reads: "In the youth and elasticity of our nation, impressions made upon us, even of our sorrows, are not lasting, and therefore it seems fitting that of this latest and greatest grief which has come to the people—the loss of the Titanic—there should be some great memorial erected in the capital of our nation.

"It should follow the memorials of ancient Greece and Rome, which to-day call to mind the uplift of their heroic deeds throughout the ages; and it might well bear the oft-quoted but ever-inspiring refrain of Kipling:

Leaf-bud of Hope, be with us yet.
Leaf-bud of Hope, be with us yet.

"And so there has been begun by a little group of women in Washington, represented by Mrs. John Hay, honorary chairman, and Mrs. John Hay Hammond, secretary, a fund for such a memorial, which it is hoped will extend to every nook and corner of this republic.

"The co-operation, therefore, of every woman in this State of Maryland is asked; and the sum of one dollar from each will make a worthy remembrance of that splendid group, from the bellboy and the stoker to the army officer and the captain, who faced death with the integrity which upholds our ideals and gives us fresh impetus for the life of our nation."

Another letter showing the rapid spread of the memorial project was received yesterday from Mrs. J. V. Fraunhofer, President of the Arkansas Federation of Women's Clubs, who wrote from Little Rock as follows:

"We heartily endorse the movement for a memorial to the heroes of the Titanic disaster and pledge our co-operation."

Other letters of interest were: Mrs. George A. Watson, New Brighton, Staten Island, N. Y.—"I have never given a dollar to a nobler cause."

Mrs. O. T. Holt, Houston, Tex.—"It is with great pleasure I respond to the call from the duty. May the monument be a living reminder of the power of God and the everlasting sympathy and love of women for those who have suffered and lost."

Mrs. M. C. Brown, Laramie, Wyo.—"I shall have your Titanic memorial letters printed in our daily papers. I think a larger number of women may be reached in this way. Shall also have it read at all women's club meetings in the city. Thanking you for the privilege of giving and serving for this sacred memorial."

Want Darrow Trial Postponed.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 10.—An effort to secure the postponement of the trial of Clarence Darrow, the Chicago attorney indicted for bribery of jurors in the trial of James R. McNamee, will be made when the case is called May 15. Attorney Earl Rogers, who represents Darrow, is suffering from throat trouble that makes it difficult for him to speak. The effort at speaking required of him at the trial would be painful.

Society

A small wedding of much interest here and in Pennsylvania will be that of Miss Hilda Parr, daughter of Representative and Mrs. John R. Parr, of Scranton, Pa., and Mr. Robert A. British Fleet Starts Practice.

Weymouth, England, May 10.—For the first time since the British fleet of 125 war ships started maneuvering off the southern coast the fog lifted to-day giving an opportunity for tactical exercises, signal drill and firing practice. King George, who had returned to the Imperial yacht, and Victoria and Albert from the Neptune again boarded the Neptune and set to sea with the fleet.

Saw Husband Sink With Ship.

Mrs. H. B. Harris' Affidavit Tells of the Titanic's Plunge.

New York, May 10.—The will of Henry B. Harris, the theatrical manager who went down with the Titanic, was filed in the Surrogate's Court to-day. The value of his estate is estimated at $100,000 in realty and $150,000 in personalty, and bequests of $10,000 each are made to the Blind Babies of the Sunshine Society, the Hebrew Infant Asylum, and the Actors' Fund of America.

With the will was an affidavit by Mrs. Harris, setting forth that she and her husband were passengers on the Titanic.

"I left the steamship together with Mrs. Thorne," she concluded, "to enter into a collapsible boat, which was the last to leave the ship. At the time that we both left to enter the boat, my husband was standing on the deck of the Titanic. Within a few moments after we struck the water and while the Titanic was in full view, I saw it sink, and my husband was then on the deck."

Put Child in Pawn.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 10.—Mrs. Frances Getting, eighteen, who had left her month-old baby with Mrs. Frank Farn, to secure a $18 board bill, recovered her infant to-day when Judge William Lunders reached into his pocket and gave Mrs. Farn the $18.
